Nomination regarding notices and other documents

(Section 194(9), National Credit Code. Regulation 111, National Consumer Credit Protection Regulations).

Under the NCC the Lender is required to send correspondence to all borrowers/guarantors separately, even if one or more of you live at the same address. The Nomination form allows you to nominate one person to receive correspondence on behalf of any other borrower/guarantor. All borrowers/guarantors must sign this form in order for the nomination to be accepted. If all borrowers/guarantors wish to receive their own correspondence then there is no need to complete this form.
